

I need help. What do I do?

If you or someone you know is homeless or at risk, here is what to do:

- If it is an emergency, call 9-1-1.
- If you are homeless, call the Housing Helpline at (314) 802-5444.
- If you are at risk of becoming homeless, call the United Way at 2-1-1.
- If you are homeless or at risk, go to the St. Patrick Center Welcome Center (side entrance) at 800 N. Tucker Blvd. to meet with a specialist. All intakes and assessments are conducted at St. Patrick Center. No appointment is necessary.
 - Morning discovery sessions begin at 8am, Monday-Friday
 - Afternoon discovery sessions begin at 1pm, Monday-Friday
 - St. Patrick Center serves lunch to the community at noon, seven days a week.

What is Coordinated Entry?

Coordinated Entry is an easy way for people experiencing homelessness to access services.

- It's a multi-agency effort, with many service providers working together.
- It includes meals, shelter, assessment, homelessness prevention and housing coordination.
- The end goal is placement into housing!
